GETTING THERE

Barcelona is served by two airports: El Prat (BCN) and (budget) Girona. Use SkyScanner.net, CheapoAir.com, and Kayak.com to find the cheap flights. We recommend arriving Thursday, departing late Sunday. Unless prices are vastly different, spend the extra few euros to fly into BCN (saving substantial time & transfer money)!

CURRENCY

Euro (€) €1:$1.33USD

FAQ

Q: How do the group meals work?

A: We've selected our favorite restaurants based on authenticity, budget and fun environment. All are welcome to join, or you can branch out on your own.

Q: What does the Sangria class include?

A: For only €20, students rave about our live cooking class! Learn how to make the famous dish, and have a full dinner plus sangria!

QUESTIONS? FIND THEM ANSWERED HERE: FAQ!

When will I get the prep info e-mail for our WSA trip?

You'll receive a booking confirmation immediately, and a prep email with directions, weather forecast and other info each Monday BEFORE your trip.

What time should we get into the city for our WSA trip?

Our city tours kick off at 10:30am sharp on Friday mornings at the hostel. We recommend arriving Thursday, and departing late on Sunday.

What if I can't get in until after 10:30am on Friday?

No worries! Our tours leave the hostel for an introductory walking tour at 10:30am, but the hostel can get you caught up with the group whenever you get in. Our guides will do their best to help you see anything you missed during the free time or on Sunday.

Where do WSA groups stay?

We work with the best hostels in each of our destinations. Bedding, showers and free wifi are included, but quality varies in each city.

What should I bring on a WSA weekend?

Bring layers, a jacket for rain, a working cell phone, pocket money for food, drinks and activities, comfortable shoes & positive attitude!

What should I NOT bring on a WSA weekend?

Risk of theft is unfortunately part of travel so please avoid bringing anything you can't afford to lose like too much cash and expensive jewelry. Phones & cameras are prime targets for thieves too.

Where can I read up on WSA's testimonials?

Please check out our love on TripAdvisor: WSA Europe

How do the group meals work?

Breakfast is usually independent and we take you to our favorite local budget eateries for lunch and dinner to get your fill.

Is Thursday night included in WSA's standard trips?

No, but you can opt into Thursday night accommodation.

Can I just show up on Thursday and claim a bed if I didn't book it?

No, please don't do this because we confirm our numbers to hostels ahead of time, and if you didn't book the Thursday night, we haven't made arrangements for you. Please note: if you take a bed, you may be responsible for compensating the person's bed you took, as well as paying the hostel for your night's stay.

FIND CHEAP FLIGHTS

When looking for flights, use the following three search engines in tandem to discover the best rates.

- ✓ SkyScanner.net
- ✓ CheapoAir.com
- ✓ Kayak.com

Once you find a flight you like, we recommend booking directly with that airline. All the destinations we offer have convenient connections from the airports into the city center. To get to the center, buses are generally cheapest, trains are next, and taxis are priciest.

TRAIN OPTIONS

Use www.oebb.at to look up timetables for journeys throughout the continent. We prefer to book our tickets in person at train stations after researching our options online.

BUSES & RIDESHARING

Find a few bus networks at:

- ✓ EuroLines.com
- ✓ OrangeWays.com
- ✓ StudentAgency.com

Google for other bus lines and ridesharing options depending on your route.
